This is Breaktime!

Breaktime is a Canadian company based in Vancouver with offices and representatives in Europe, Asia and Latin America.

Our staff has more than 15 years of experience helping international students whenever they want to come to study in Canada to take a Language, Work and Study or Professional Program. Throughout the years, we have helped more than 3000 students from all over the world!

Study and Travel around the world and enrich your life!

International experiences play an important role in the education and growth of everyone. Our lives get better when we expose ourselves to new cultures, languages, communities and experiences. Studying abroad helps in understanding ourselves and the world around us.

An international study or work experience helps us become more adaptable people with a global understanding of the world and better tools to be successful in the personal, academic and professional fields. The mission of Breaktime is to create a better world by improving the lives and the future of each of our students.

In Breaktime we want to improve the world by improving the lives of each of our students

How can we help you?

- 1) Our staff has more than 15 years of experience in the International Education and Work Abroad Industry, so we know our programs in detail and we can help our students choose the best option.
- 2) Breaktime offers better prices and special discounts. Frequently schools give us special prices and promotions that we extend to our students.
- 3) We are specialists in Canada. We know which are the best colleges and language schools in this country because we visit them often. We frequently visit educational institutions with our students.
- 4) Breaktime helps our students with all what they need, both before and after coming to Canada. Orientation and guidance, accommodation services, job search services, medical insurance and more.
- 5) As Breaktime is a Canadian company, we have built throughout the years a complete network of contacts with companies that are looking for employees. Our students find it very easy to find a job in Canada with our support.

Breaktime helps you reach your goals in Canada

The Benefits of Studying in Canada

International Students that study a professional program obtain multiple benefits, like receiving a work permit while studying and in some cases can apply for a Post Graduation Work Permit.

The benefit of receiving a Work Permit helps in covering living expenses and getting international work experience.

Students registered in certain Professional Programs can come with their couple, who will receive a Work Permit, and can bring their minor children

Many students that come to Canada decide to apply for Permanent Residence after completing their education

Work and Study Programs

Our Work and Study Programs allow international students to obtain an official Certificate from an Educational Institution in Canada while obtaining valuable Paid Work Experience. These programs are ideal for people willing to experience life in Canada for one or two years.

° PROFESSIONAL FIELDS: Business, Tourism, Design or IT

° DURATION: Study programs have a duration of 6 to 12 months. Students are allowed to work part time while studying. After the study program has finished, students can work full time for a period equal to the duration of their studies. In total, programs last 1 or 2 years.

° REQUISITES: Minimum age: 18 years. English Level: From Intermediate to Advanced, depending on the selected program.

° START DATES: Most programs start every month.

° LOCATIONS: Vancouver and Toronto

° NECESSARY PERMITS: Participants must request a Study Permit before coming to Canada. The Study Permit allows students to work. Study permits are easy to obtain if a student has a Letter of Acceptance from an approved Educational Institution.

° FEES: Programs prices vary depending on the college, field of studies and additional services, however, the average price for a one-year program is around 8500 Canadian Dollars and for a two-year program is around 10500 Canadian Dollars.

Work and Study Programs are the easiest option to come to Canada if your goal is to Study and Work

University - Post Grad - Masters

Canada has one of the best College and University education systems in the world. Each year thousands of international students come to Canada to study their first career or a postgraduate program. Students that complete a two year career program in certain institutions can apply to stay and work in Canada for up to 3 additional years. Many students chose to apply for Permanent Resident status.

Testimonials

David Gaitan – Colombia

Business and Communications + Work Experience

Thanks to Breaktime and his Director, Santiago Endara, I achieved a dream that I had had a long time: to come to Canada. It is an incredible and beautiful country, with kind and helpful people, just like Breaktime. During the college application process, I had the professional advice of Santiago and his team at all times. With kindness, patience and experience, I was accepted in my school and here I am!

Daniela Gómez – Mexico

International Business + Work Experience

From the first time we contacted Breaktime and his Director, Santiago Endara, the service was excellent and very fast. He explained all the different programs out there and we scheduled a call to discuss the programs that interested me the most.

Breaktime made the process of applying to school very exciting and not stressful!

In addition to having affordable prices, the diplomas allowed me to study and work from the beginning, which has helped me a lot to have Canadian experience and to become familiar with the industry in Vancouver.

Right now, I am in the process of applying for permanent residency and ... to continue reading please visit www.breaktimecanada.org/testimonials/

Paola Vela & Jorge Fandiño – Colombia

Postgraduate and English Program

Since our dream of going to the wonderful country called Canada began, like you, we had many doubts. What is the best college? Which career I want to study, where can I find it? What documents do I need to enroll? among many other questions. It was there that we found the perfect advisor at Breaktime to help us answer these and a thousand other questions, offering advice and support at all times.

Something unusual that happened in our process was when we began to study English remotely due to Covid. I took the University Pathway program and my husband the IELTS preparation course. In this situation, many of the policies that the institutes had established in terms of reimbursement concepts, became obsolete ... to continue reading, please visit www.breaktimecanada.org/testimonials/

Rolando López – México

University Studies - Biology

My name is Rolando López and I am 20 years old, I am currently studying an Associate of Science in Biology Program in the city of Vancouver, Canada.

Thanks to the help of Breaktime I was able to contact the colleges that interested me and they accompanied me throughout the registration process and necessary paperwork to apply to different colleges. It was a great relief to have the help of the entire Breaktime team as it can be a tiring process, sometimes complicated, but above all overwhelming, it is an important decision after all.

With the help of Breaktime, it was a simple process, we determined which universities and / or colleges interested me, we made contact with them through Santiago Endara, and the enrollment process began in each institution. When I was accepted into the College of my interest, Breaktime asked me to provide some documents to finish the enrollment process and I started my course ... to continue reading please visit: www.breaktimecanada.org/testimonials/

Orlando Lara – México Tourism + Work Experience

My experience in Canada would not have been the same without Breaktime's professionalism.

They listen to your needs, give options, and respond to doubts in a timely, clear, and transparent manner. I am grateful for their incredible service but above all things for being there before, during, and after my study program.

Ingrid Murillo – Colombia MBA (Masters in Business Administration)

The way to make your dreams come true is not always easy, and there will be always ups and downs. Starting a new whole life from scratch in another country is not easy, but it will be always worth if you get a friendly support and advice.

And that's precisely what Breaktime became to me. They are always right next to you to help you out with everything you need during your process of becoming an international student in Canada.

From the beginning to the end, you can count on them. Their guidance to choose the best school that goes with your studies background, budget, ... to continue reading please visit: www.breaktimecanada.org/testimonials/

Montserrat Arroyo – Mexico Digital Marketing + Work Experience

Thanks to Breaktime and his Director, Santiago Endara, I have been in Canada for 3 and a half months. From the beginning they gave me all the information about the courses that best suited my needs and they helped me plan everything according to my final goals.

Despite the pandemic and the uncertainty in general, they always gave me answers about my process, leaving me assured while waiting. Now that I am in Canada, they have followed up on my stay. Thanks to their advice I am now beginning to achieve one of my most important goals I life.

Esteban Ponce – Ecuador Diseño + Experiencia Laboral

From the first time I contacted Breaktime - Canada, its director Santiago Endara was very kind and clear about the programs available to study and work in Canada through a Co-Op Diploma.

After exploring the various options, I was convinced that Breaktime was the best option. They helped me with all the necessary paperwork to get my acceptance letter from the college.

The best thing was that from the first day I obtained my permit, I immediately had the option to start working. During the pandemic, Breaktime and my college were there to give us their full support. It is worth mentioning that, once I finished my studies, the same College, through the Co-Op advisors, helped me find a very attractive job offer where I could also... to continue reading please visit:
